- 3) TIMOTHY CUNNINGHAM, A NEW AND COMPLETE LAW-DICTIONARY (1st ed. 1764).

Apportum, Seems to be deduced from the French apport, and signifies the revenue, gain, or profit, which a thing brings in to its owner. It is also used for an augmentation given to any abbot, for his better support out of the profits of a manor—ita quod proficua manerii predicti apporti qualibet anno prefato A. in subventinum sustentationis sine solverantor. Ann. 22 Ed. 2. N. 72. Line. The word was commonly used for a corrody or pension:--Nicolaus Gwun prior de Andover, debt xx macron de quodam apporto, ad capitalem dominum ejusdem prioris in partibus transmorinis, in tempore paci debito. Ex register Evidentiarum Colleg. Wickham. Juxta Winton. MS.—Rex Edwardus 3. Restituit terras prioratum aliengigenarum salve nobis apporto, quod prasectus procurator alicai domain superiori salvere tenetur. Cianf. 14. Ed. 3. The word misht at fist signify any profit or emolument apported or brought to another; and therefore Du Fresene observes in which the Customary of Rhemes, apport was the portion which the wife brought to the husband.

Maritima Angliae, The emolument arising to the King from the sea, which sheriffs anciently collected; but was afterwards granted to the admiral. Pat. 8. Hen. 2. M. 4. Richardus de Lucy dicitur babere maritimam Angliae.

4) RICHARD BURN, A NEW LAW DICTIONARY (1st ed. 1792)

Isle of Man, is a distinct territory from England, and is not governed by our laws; neither doth any act of parliament extend to it, unless it be particularly named therein. It was formerly a subordinate feudatory kingdom, subject to the kings of Norway; then to the kings of England; afterwards to the kings of Scotland; and then again to the crown of England; and was finally granted, by the king James the first, to William Stanley earl of Derby, and the heirs male of his body, with remainder to his heirs general; which grant was confirmed by an act of parliament, with a restraint of the power of alienation by the said earl and his issue male. On the death of James ear of Derby in the year 1735, the male line of earl William failing, the duke of Athol succeeded to the island, as heir general by a female branch. In the mean time, though the title of king had long been disused, the earls of Derby, as lords of Man, had maintained a sort of royal authority therein; which being found inconvenient for the purposes of public justice, and for the revenue, (it affording a commodious asylum for debtors, outlaws, and smugglers,) authority was given to the treasure, by statute 12 G.c.28. to purchase the interest of the then proprietors for the use of the crown; which purchase was at length completed in the year 1765, and confirmed by the statutes 5 G.3.c.26 & 39. whereby the whole island, and all its dependencies, (except the landed property of the Athol family, their manerial rights and emoluments, and the patronage of the bishopric and other ecclesiastical benefices,) are unalienably vested in the crown, and subjected to the regulations of the British excise and customs. 1 Black. 105.

Elegit, is a writ Iudiciall, and lyeth for him, that hath recouered debt or dammages in the kings court, against one not able in his goods to satisfie: and directed to the Shyreene, commaunding him that he make deliery of halfe the parties lands or tenements, and all his goods, oxen and beasts for the plough excepted. Old nat. br. fol. 152. Register original fol. 299. & 301. and the Table of the Register Iudiciall, which expresseth diuers vses of this writ. The author of the new terms of law saith, that this writ should be siewed within the yeare, whom read at large for the vse of the same.

Elk, a kinde of ewe to make bowes of. anno 33. H 8. cap. 9.

Empanel (Impanellare, Ponere in assisis & Iuratis) commeth of the french (Panne. 1. pellis) or of (Panneau) which signifieth some time as much as a pane with vs, as a pane of glasse, or of a windowe. It signifieth the wrighting or entring the names of a Iury into a parchment schedule or Rolle or paper, by the Shyreene, which he hath sommoned to appeare for the perfourmance of such publique seruice, as Iuries are employed in. See Panell.

Emparlance, commeth of the french (Parler) and signifieth in our common lawe, a desire or petition in court of a day to pause, what is best to doe. The ciuilians call it (petitionem induciarū) Kitchin fol. 200. interpreteth it in these words: If he imparle or pray continuance. For praying continuance is spoken interpretatiue in that place, as I take it. The same author maketh mention of Emparlance generall. fol. 201. and Emparlance speciall fol. 200. Emparlance generall seemeth to be that which is made onely in one word, and in generall terms. Emparlance speciall, where the party requireth a day to deliberate, adding also these words: saluis omnibus aduantijs tam ad iurisdictionem Curie quam ad breue & narrationem, or such like: Britton vseth it for the conference of a Iury vpon the cause committed vnto them. ca. 53. See Imparlance.

Emprouement, See Improuement.

If a Wife be indowed ex assensu patris, and the Husband dieth, the Wife hath election either to have her dower at the Common Law, or ex assensu patris, if she bring a Writ of Dower at the Common Law and count, albeit she recover not, yet shall she never after claim her dower ex assensu, &c.

Dyer fol. 18.1c.4. A covenanteth to pay B a pound of Pepper or Saffron before Whitsunide, which of them he will pay, but if he payes it not before the same feast, then afterwards it is at the election of B to have his action for which he pleateth, either of the Pepper, or of the Saffron.

21H.7.19. So if a man giveth to another his Horse or Cow, the Donee may take the one or the other at his election, but if it was that he will give it in the future tense, there the Donee cannot take the one nor the other, for then the Election is in the Donor.

Cook l. 5. Rep. fol. 59. If a Justice of Peace directeth his Warrant to a Constable, to bring the party apprehended before him or another Justice, it is in the Election of the Constable to go to what Justice he pleateth.

ELEGIT.

Cowel Instit. Elegit, est nomen Brevis, sic dictum ab hoc verbo (Elegit) in eodem comprehenso.

EMPARLANCE.

Cowels Interpreter. Emparlance, cometh of the French word (parler) and signifieth a desire or petition in Court, of a day to pause what is best to do.

ENDICT.

ENDICTMENT.

Endictment, signifieth in Law an accusation Some de- found by an enquest, of twelve or more upon their rive it from oath, and the accusation is called endictamentum, the word and as the appeal is ever at the suit of the party, so ἐνδικησιον the endictment is alwaies at the suit of the King, to accuse, and his Declaration.

To make a good endictment it is necessary to put If it be un- in the day, year, and place, when and where the fe- certain, it is lony is done. not good.

It ought to be certain also in the matter, as ap- Stamford pears. P. 8. E. 4 f. 3. where a Bailiff was endicted, pl. of Cr. l. 2. c. 30. because he took one for suspicion of felony, and after eum felonie, & voluntarie ad largum ire per- missit, and did not shew in certain for what suspicion of felony, so when one is endicted that he made an hundred shillings of Alchymy ad instar pecunie Domini Regis, and alledged not what money it was, groats or pennies: but in case a man be slain, and he is so mangled in the visage that one cannot know him, but the party which killed him is well known, there is no reason he should escape punishment, therefore although no ap- Stam. ubi supra. peal lie against him in this case, yet an Endictment lies, and he shall be endicted, quod interfecit quondam ignotum, the same Law is if one be endicted that he stole the goods cujusdam ignoti, or bona cujusdam persone, the reason is, because the Endictment is not his which was the owner of the goods, but is the suit of the King, which is to have the goods, if none claim them.

An Endictment ought to expresse in certain, as well in what part the mortall wound is, as the profundity and latitude of it, and therefore it was moved that such an Endictment, quod unam

And when the thing granted, is of a thing Annual, and to have continuance, there the Election doth remain to the Grantor, when the Law doth give him the Election, as well after the day as before; as when one grants the Annuity of twenty shillings, or a Robe at Easter, but when it is to be performed unicâ vice onely, contra: And therefore if one contract with me to pay me twenty shillings, or a Robe at Easter, if he fail, I may sue for either.

5. What Act shall amount to an Election, and be good and binding, or not. Services. Dower.

If an Election be given to divers persons, and one of them make a choice; this shall binde all the rest, though they agree not to it, Co. 2. 36. Co. super Littl. 146.

If two be Joyntenants of a Manor, and a Wardship happen, and one of them seize the Ward; this will binde the other, and he cannot after wave him, and demand his Services, Co. 2. 63.

If a Rent-charge be granted to a man and his heirs, and the wife of the Grantee brings a Writ of Dower against the Heir, and the Heir to prevent the wife of Dower, claims it to be an Annuity, and not a Rent-charge; this is no good Election, and therefore she shall recover her Dower; and after this Endowment, the Heir cannot have Annuity for the two parts, for he must have all as a Rent-charge, Co. super Littl. 444.

6. By what means an Election may be gone, or not.

If two things pass by one Gift or Grant, altogether uncertain at the first, and the Feoffee or Donee die before Election; this Election is gone, and the Grant void: As in the case of the Feoffment of one of two Acres, and of the Wood, and the gift of one of his horses, Co. 2. 36, 37. Dyer 281.

If one have an Election to pay one of two things at a day, and he do not pay it at the day, then his Election is gone to the other, as in the case above, Rehn. 78. Dennis case, Trin. 8 Jac. B.R. And if after the Election given to the Grantee, he brings a Writ of Annuities for one onely, and have Judgment for that one; his Election is gone, and he can never demand the other, Co. 2. 36, 37.

If one enfeoff another of two Acres, to have the one for life, and the other in tail, and before Election the Feoffee make a Feoffment of both: Now his Election is gone, and the Feoffor may enter upon which he will for Forfeiture, Co. 2. 37.

If one grant a Rent-charge, and after the Grantee distrain and avow for it in a Court of Record, or bring an Annuity, and have a Judgment in it; in these cases his Election is gone: So if the Grantee of the Rent, before Election, purchase the Land, or release all Annuities, it seems his Election is gone, Dyer 344. 140. But in cases where the Gift or Grant is of one thing; but by several Titles, or in a divers manner: As in the case of Lease that hath words of Bargain and Demise also; or of a Grant of a Rent; the alteration of the estate of him in Reversion, or the death of either of the parties will not determine the Election: And if in the first case the Lessee enter generally, and do not declare how he will take it; this is no Determination of his Election, Co. 3. 37.

If a Term be given to the Executor, and he enter generally, and do not declare how, whether as Legatory, or as Executor; this is no Determination of his Election, but he may afterwards make his Election well enough, Co. 2. 37.

Ann.

If a Lessee for years be of Land, determinable upon the death of J. S. and he grant a Rent-charge out of his Land, and before the Election of the Grantee how to take this Rent J. S. die; so that now the Land cannot be charged; yet the Grantee his Election is not so gone, but he may charge the Grantor in an Annuity, Co. 2. 36.

If one give to a man two Acres of Land, to have one in Tail, and the other in Fee, and he make a Feoffment of both; in this case the Election is not gone, to the Heir in Tail; for he may bring a Forfeiture for either, Co. 2. 36.

If an Issue in Tail make a voidable Lease and die, and the Guardian of his Heir avoid him (as he may) yet, this notwithstanding, the Election of the Heir at his full age remaineth, Co. 7. 7.

If one grant a Rent-charge in Fee, without the words pro se & heredibus suis, and the Grantee bring a Writ of an Annuity against the Heir, and after discontinue his Suit, yet he hath the same Election he had, and may distrain the Land, Dyer 344.

If

If a Grantee be in the dis-junctive of two Annual things, and things of continuance; if the Election belong to the Grantor, and he fail of the day, his Election is not gone; otherwise it is of things that are to be performed unicâ vice onely: As if one grant by Copy, twenty Trees growing upon Black-acre, or White-acre to be cut down yearly by himself, and delivered to the Grantee such a day, and the Grantor fail at the day, yet his Election is not gone, Co. of Copihold. 120.

In most of all these cases before, when once a man hath made his Election, it is peremptory to him, and shall never after wave it, and chuse again: So also after a Judgment for Debt or Damages, where a man hath an Election what execution to take; if he have taken Execution by Elegit, it seems he cannot afterwards take any other remedy for recovery of his Debt or Damages upon the Judgment, Dyer 229. 60.

7. Where an Election is peremptory, or not.

Where a Lord by Custom may seize a Herriot, the best Beast, and he chuseth one of the worst; he is bound by this, and he shall not chuse again. See more for this in Contracts, 16 H. 7. 4.

But where a man hath the Election of one Action of two, and he sue, and the other appear, and after is non-sure; this is no Determination of his Election, Co. upon Littl. 146.

For Election of Persons to any Office or place, these things are to be known.

8. Election of persons.

1. Elections to Colledges, Churches, Hospitales, Schools, Halls, Benefices, Ecclesiastical Dignities, and Societies must be free.
2. So must the Admissions and Institutions be into such places, free.
3. None may by threats disturb free Elections.
4. If any take any thing, or a promise of any thing to give his voice for an Election, it makes the Election void, and another may be chosen.
5. If a man take any thing, or a promise of any thing for resigning a place, he that gives is hereby made incapable of the place.
6. If any take any thing, or any promise of any thing for a Presentation or Collation to a Benefice, by this he is made incapable of it, see Simony.
7. So it is of Corrupt Exchanges and Resignations, between Incumbents of their Benefices, if they be with cure of Souls, 31 Eliz. 5. Westm. 1. And Articuli Cleri, and Wingate, Abridgment of them: Fit. Election.

CHAP. LXXIV.

Of an Infant and Engagement.

BY an Infant, commonly and properly in our Law, is meant one that is in his Nonage, under the age of one and twenty years, whether Male or Female, Co. super Littl. 171. But the word is sometimes taken more largely: And the Law hath a great respect to Infants, to protect them from wrong, and to preserve their estate; and therefore doth give them many Privileges, and Benefits above others; as in many cases.

1. An Infants what. Nonage. Their Privileges.

First, Not to be sued, till they be of full age.

Self. 1.

Secondly, Not to be bound by their Contract, or their other Acts, that may turn to their prejudice, but onely in some special cases; for which fee in Age. And wrongs done to them, are more severely punished then to others.

next before Quadragesima, which is a great mistake.

Emendate, (Emenda.) Is an old word, still used in the Accounts of the Inver-Temple; where so much in Emendats at the foot of an Account, signifies so much in the Bank or Stock of the House, for Reparation of Losses, or other emergent occasions; Quod in restaurationem damni tribuitur, says Spelman.

Empanel, (Ponere in Assis & Jurati.) Signifies the Writing and Entering the Names of a Jury into a Parchment Schedule, or Roll of Paper, by the Sheriff, whom he has Summoned to appear for the performance of such publick Service, as Juries are employ'd in. See Paul.

Empurance, (From the French, Parler, to speak.) Signifies a Desire or Petition in Court of a Day to pause, what is best to do; (the Civilians call it, Petitionem induciarum.) Kitchin, (fol. 200.) says, If he imparl, or pray continuance, &c. where praying continuance is spoken interpretatively; and fol. 201. mentions impurance general and special; The first seems to be that, which is made only in one word, and in general terms: Empurance special, where the Party requires a Day to deliberate; adding also these words, Salvo omnibus advantage tan ad jurisdictionem Curie, quam ad breve & narrationem — or such like. Briston useth it for the conference of a Jury upon the Cause committed to them, ca. 53. See Impurance.

Enchelon, (Encheli.) Signifies Occasion, Cause or Reason, wherefore any thing is done. 50 Edw. 3. ca. 3. See Skene in hoc verbum.

Encroachment, or Accroachment, (Fr. Accrochement. i. A grasping, or hooping.) Signifies an unlawful encroaching, or gathering in upon another Man; As if two Mens Grounds lying together, the one presseth too far upon the other; or if a Tenant owe two shillings Rent-Service, and the Lord exacts three. So Hugh and Hugh Spencer encroached unto them Royal Power and Authority. Anno 1. Edw. 3. in Proem.

Enclément, (Indictamentum, from the Fr. Enditer. i. Deserve nomen alicujus.) Is a Bill or Declaration drawn in form of Law, for the Benefit of the Common-wealth, and exhibited by way of Accusation against one for some offence, either Criminal or Penal, and preferred unto Jurors, and by their Verdict, found and presented to be true before a Judge or Officer, that has power to punish, or certify the Offence. An Indictment is always at the Suite of the King, and differs from an Accusation in this, That the Preferrer of the Bill is no way tied to the Proof of it, upon any Penalty, except there appear conspiracy. See Stamf. pl. Cor. lib. 2. ca. 23. 1573. 34. Enditments of Treason, and of all other things ought to be most curiously and certainly penned. Coke 7. Rep. Calvin's Case. The day, year and place, must be put in. See the Stat. 37 Hen. 8. ca. 8. And 3 Part. Inst. fol. 134.

Endowment, (Dotatio.) Signifies the bestowing or assuring of a Dower. See Dower. But it is sometimes used Metaphorically, for the setting forth or severing a sufficient portion for a Vicar towards his perpetual maintenance, when the Benefice is appropriated. See Appropriation, and the Stat. 15 Rich. 2. ca. 6.

Endowment de la plus belle part, Is where a Man dying seized of some Lands holden in Knights-service, and other some in Soccage, the Widow is sped of her Dower, in the Lands holden in Soccage, as being the faiver or better part. Of which see Litleton at large, lib. 1. cap. 5.

Enfranchise, (French, Enfranchir.) To make Free, to Incorporate a Man in any Society or Body Politick, to make one a Free Denizen.

Enfranchisement, (French.) Signifies the Incorporating a Man into any Society or Body Politick; For example, he that by Charter is made Denizen of England, is said to be Enfranchised; and so is he that is made a Citizen of London, or other City, or Burgefs of any Town Corporate; because he is made partaker of those Liberties that appertain to the Corporation, whereinto he is Enfranchised. So a Villain was Enfranchised, when he was made Free by his Lord.

Engleerie, Engleberie or Engleschyre, (Engleeria.) Is an old abstract word, signifying the being an Englishman. For example, if a Man were privily slain or murdered, he was in old time accounted Francigena, (which comprehended every alien, especially Danes.) until Engleerie was proved, that is, until it were made manifest, that he was an Englishtman. Bracton, lib. 3. tract. 2. cap. 15. num. 3.

This Engleerie (for the Abuses and Troubles that afterward were perceived to grow by it.) was absolutely taken away, by Stat. 14 Edw. 3. cap. 4.

Inheritance. See Inheritance.

Enitia pars. See Esneey.

Enpleet, Was anciently used for implead — may Enpleet and be Enplected in all Courts. Mon. Angl. 2. par. fol. 412. b.

Enquest. Fr. (Lat. Inquisitio.) Is especially taken for that Inquisition of Jurors, or by Jury, which is the most usual tryal of all Causes, both Civil and Criminal in this Realm. For in Causes Civil, after such proof is made on either side, as each Party thinks good for himself, if the doubt be in the fact, it is referred to the discretion of Twelve indifferent Men, impannelled by the Sheriff for the purpose; and as they bring in their Verdict, so Judgment passeth: For the Judge saith, the jury finds the Fact thus, then is the Law (if their Verdict do not contradict it,) thus, and so we judge. As to the Enquest in Causes Criminal, see Jury, and see Sir Tho. Spish de Repub. Angl. lib. 2. cap. 19. An Enquest is either of Office, or at the Mife of the Party. Stamf. Pl. Cor. lib. 3. cap. 12.
